

PHILADELPHIANS TO ANSWER PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S CALL TO ARMS !

Call to Arms — Parade, Review, and Living History Demonstrations

SATURDAY, APRIL 16TH, 2011, 10-3

See 500 Civil War soldiers and civilians, bands, representatives of the modern armed services, led by Mayor Michael A. Nutter, President Abraham Lincoln, and Frederick Douglass. Then join parade participants and others for military drills and Cavalry demonstrations, displays on the U.S. Colored Troops, Civil War medicine, and more, at Broad & Washington. Finish the day with a gala Civil War ball at the historic Union League.

Parade route (follows approximate route of historic April 18, 1861 march):

- National Constitution Center (525 Arch St)
- South on Sixth Street, past historic Independence Hall
- West on Chestnut Street
- South on Broad Street, with grand review at the Historic Union League, Broad & Sansom, ending and followed by living history demonstrations at Broad & Washington, site of the P.W.&B. R.R. depot from which the troops departed for the front

SCHEDULE -- all events free except as noted:

10:00	Parade leaves National Constitution Center, 525 Arch Street
10:45	Ceremony at Union League, Broad & Sansom
12:00-3:00	Living history event, Broad & Washington
6:00-10:00	Gala Civil War Ball, Union League (separate ticketed function)

tweet the parade! #cwphillyparade

<http://www.civilwarphilly.net/parade>

Sponsored by the Civil War History Consortium of Greater Philadelphia and the Union League of Philadelphia

